NATURAL STONE

All varieties of Granite may be subject to natural variation in colour, shade and grain pattern. They may also contain natural markings and fissures which are a part of the material and enhance the unique qualities of each memorial.

All prices are for the memorial as seen in the brochure which include relevant optional extras for hand painted designs and flower containers. Each memorial is available without these options and can be tailored to suit on request. For other styles and types of memorial options, please enquire for further information.
